

Self-Remembering

WHAT AM I?

I am privileged because I brought nothing and everything was provided ~ food, clothes, shelter, transportation.
I don't remember asking to be here, so I must have been invited by Life., the Host. That makes me:

A privileged, invited Guest.

WHERE AM I?

On this beautiful estate called Earth

WHAT'S GOING ON?

All Games have Officials, Players, Rules, Rewards and Penalties.
E.g. the Football game, Traffic game, Legal game, Relationship game, Soccer game, Business game,
Political game, and Baseball game – to name a few.
Games are played at Parties. Every party has a Host. Therefore,

There is a huge Party going on to which I was invited by the Host.

WHAT CAN I DO?

I can be Considerate
of the estate and the other guests.

I can be Harmless
toward the estate and the other guests.

I can make a Contribution.

At the very least I can contribute to a pleasant, harmonious mood, wherever I am.

Not because the Host requires it, not because I "Owe" it, or "Should," but because:
It is my way of saying Thank You for being invited.

Taken from "The Party Story" by Robert Rhondell Gibson